

I would like to request that Indiana's Telephone privacy law be left intact. I do not want banking institutions to be able to make unsolicited calls at random.